

Contents

Central and Eastern European Migration Review

Vol. 11, No. 2, 2022

Special Issue

Relocating East–West Migration and (Im)Mobilities

Russell King, Laura Moroşanu, Mari-Liis Jakobson, Garbi Schmidt, Md Farid Miah, Raivo Vetik and Jenny Money

Editorial Introduction: Relocating East–West Migration and (Im)Mobilities 5

Anne White

Mobility, Transnational and Integration Continuums as Components of the Migrant Experience: An Intersectional Polish-Ukrainian Case Study 17

Kseniya Homel

Agency and Social Relations in the Search for a Better Life: Female Migrant Entrepreneurs in Poland 33

Davide Bertelli, Marta Bivand Erdal, Anatolie Coşciug, Angelina Kussy, Gabriella Mikiewicz, Kacper Szulecki, Corina Tulbure

Living Here, Owning There? Transnational Property Ownership and Migrants' (Im)Mobility Considerations Beyond Return 53

Remus Gabriel Anghel, Ovidiu Oltean, Alina Petronela Silian

Many Mobile, Few Successful: Ethnicised Return in a Changing Romanian Context 69

Anatolie Coşciug

To Be or Not To Be a Samsar: Motivations for Entrepreneurship among Romanian Returnees Involved in the Transnational Trade in Used Vehicles 85

Georgiana Udrea, Gabriela Guiu

The Impact of Parents' Work Migration on the Social, Communication and Educational Experiences of Left-Behind Adolescents 101

Oksana Shmulyar Gréen, Charlotte Melander, Ingrid Höjer

Mobility and Connection to Places: Memories and Feelings about Places that Matter for CEE-Born Young People Living in Sweden 119

Roberta Ricucci

Where Is My Place? The Second Generation in Italy as a New Kind of Transnational Migrant 137

Daina Grosa

Anxieties Regarding Family Return to Latvia: Does the Imagined Turn Out to Be Reality? 155